Applicant's Signature/Electronic Signature

If applying or completing the application electronically, please type your name on the "Applicant's Signature" line above. An "Electronic Signature" means "an electronic sound, symbol, or process, attached to or logically associated with a record and executed or adopted by a person with the intent to sign the record." This definition comes from the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act or "UETA" released by NCCUSL in 1999. Signing this application electronically by typing in your name on the "Applicant's Signature" line or the act of "clicking" the "Submit" button to transmit your application electronically will be the equivalent to a hand written signature and cause this application for employment to become a legally binding document that could be admissible in a court of law.
